

In math we will... handle and spend money making different amounts and working out change. Recapping time, looking at half-past and o'clock and introducing quarter to and quarter past. We will finish off the year looking at both 2D and 3D shapes.	Year 3 Summer Term 2023	In English we will... explore a range of 'change stories' looking at Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. Within this unit, we will also look into diary entries and persuasion in depth.
As thinkers in PSHE we will... explore the what a hazard is and how to stay safe within different environments. We will also look at health and well-being, particularly mental health and what we can do to keep our minds healthy.	The United Kingdom 	As thinkers in RE we will... come to an end of our Hinduism topic, looking closely at the deeper meaning behind worship and a Hindu's ultimate goal, while exploring Hindu holy books.
As scientists we will... look at why light is so important to us, and what light sources are. We will also explore Plants, looking at how they make their own food and reproduce.	As geographers/historians we will... look into the geography of The United Kingdom. Knowing what a country, county and region is. We will look at the different demographics for example: towns, cities and countryside. We will identify human and physical features while finally exploring the mining industry, in particularly The Rising Sun.	As computer scientists we will... explore digital art, looking at how images can be altered using different software. We will also look into Communication and Collaboration, sending emails and creating shared documents.
As sportspeople we will.... focus on fitness this term, working hard to beat our pre assessment scores in indoor PE where we will be taking part in boot camp style sessions. We will participate in the daily mile as much as possible. Please keep an eye out for information regarding sports day.	As artists and technologists we will... look into artists Monet and Ben Holland , creating landscapes of the UK using all of the techniques we have learnt this year, while combining new skills of montage and tessellation.	As musicians we will... begin to play the recorders, working up to a class performance.
As linguists we will... learn language used to describe ourselves and our family.	Career links to our learning this term... Author Safety Officer Gardner Electrician	Wider curriculum opportunities this term include... Road Safety
Texts you can read to support your understanding... 'Change Stories' such as The Ugly Duckling, Beauty and the Beast, James and the Giant Peach and Cinderella.	Websites to support learning at home... Times Table Rockstars Oxford Owl BBC Bitesize	Suggested places for family visits... Hindu Temple Rising Sun Country Park (mining) Woodhorn Colliery (mining)

--	--	--