

Week 2 Task 1

Generating adjectives...

Today are going to write a description of a setting. You need to give the reader an interesting description of the setting to get them interested and wanting to read more. You need to give a good description as there isn't always a picture.

First think of adjectives (describing words) to describe each part of the setting bridge

trees

mountains

flowers

sky

river

Can I write a description of a setting using adjectives?
