Friday 3rd July

Year 3 poetry exploration

Read through the poem then try some of the tasks suggested underneath

City Lights

Margaret Greaves

You could try...

Reading the poem together with an adult

What is the poet trying to make the city lights sound like?

Using the description in the poem to create a piece of art of what you think the city scene looks like.

Spotting the verbs in the poem. Can you think of synonyms to replace these verbs? Looking out of your window and creating your own poem about the lights you see at dusk
