Today's task is to create your own dialogue (speech) between the characters)

You can give the characters names of your own choice. I have chosen Amy and Sam.

Let's recap on the rules of speech.

TOP TIP- (for grown ups)-inverted commas are just what we call speech marks!

Task; Have a go at writing the dialogue for the first time the characters meet. I have started it for you.

"Are you ok?" Amy asked curiously

"I think so", Sam replied nervously

CHALLENGE *If you want to complete an extra task, copy this link to practise
