

Monday 23rd November

Look at the example below and follow the instructions to up level and change the sentences. Once you have had a few goes apply your skills and write your own sentences

★ Let's work on our sentences!

★ You will need a piece of paper or a note pad, and something to write with, or a computer.

The Substitution Game

- a) In this sentence from The King of the Fishes, the writer has picked three parts of the fish to describe in detail.

It had silver scales that glittered in the sunlight, blood-red fins and a golden crown.

- b) The nouns have adjectives before them.

The writer has added extra detail about the scales by using that to add on a relative clause: 'that glittered in the sunlight'.

- c) Can you see that my sentence is the same but it is about a lion? I am substituting the words in the sentence for new ones. Don't forget your comma!

It had giant paws that thundered across the earth, sandy fur and a fearsome roar.

- d) Make up your own sentences by substituting! You can use the pictures below for some ideas
