

Wednesday 29th April

Good morning everybody. Hope you are all well. Today we would like you to improve a passage of writing by adding exciting adjectives and adverbs where prompted.

Read the passage and then re-write it in your books with suitable adjectives and adverbs.

It was a * night. There were * bombs dropping. David could hear the * siren wailing and... He held his mum's hand # as they hurried to the shelters #. The sky was full of * planes and the * searchlights. David looked around him. He could see... As they rushed through the * city David felt... It was *. He could smell...

* = ADJECTIVE (describing word e.g. bright, loud)

= ADVERB (describing HOW something is happening e.g. quickly, carefully)

... = continue this sentence

Challenge –

Continue the passage by writing 3 extra sentences. Use powerful adjectives and adverbs to enhance the description.
