

BBC Children in Need Challenge

9 Joe Wicks, the nation's virtual PE coach, will be
18 holding a 24-hour PE challenge for BBC Children in
22 Need on 12th November.
34 He hopes that by doing so, he will be able to raise
41 lots of money for the children's charity.
49 The money raised will support children across the
59 UK, changing the lives of those who need it most
61 within communities.
71 Over the 24 hours, he will have a host of
80 different guests joining him too. For the final part
89 of his challenge, Joe will stream live on Youtube.
98 Schools and children from all over the world can
101 cheer him on!

Quick Questions

1. How long is Joe's challenge?

2. Find a word in the third paragraph which means the same as help.

3. Do you think Joe will complete the challenge? Explain your answer.

4. Summarise the key information in the article in 20 words or fewer.

BBC Children in Need Challenge

9 Joe Wicks, the nation's virtual PE coach, will be
18 holding a 24-hour PE challenge for BBC Children in
22 Need on 12th November.
34 He hopes that by doing so, he will be able to raise
41 lots of money for the children's charity.
49 The money raised will support children across the
59 UK, changing the lives of those who need it most
61 within communities.
71 Over the 24 hours, he will have a host of
80 different guests joining him too. For the final part
89 of his challenge, Joe will stream live on Youtube.
98 Schools and children from all over the world can
101 cheer him on!

Answers

1. How long is Joe's challenge?
24 hours
2. Find a word in the third paragraph which means the same as help.
support
3. Do you think Joe will complete the challenge?
Explain your answer.
Accept any reasonable prediction, e.g. I think Joe will complete the challenge because he is a PE coach and used to physical challenges.
4. Summarise the key information in the article in 20 words or fewer.
Accept any reasonable answer which summarises the article in 20 words or fewer, e.g. Joe Wicks is doing a 24-hour fitness challenge for BBC Children in Need.