David does not know what to do when faced with the German airman who saved his life. Read both sides of the argument and decide what you would do if you were David.

He should tell someone about the soldiers because:	He should help them to escape because:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- They are the enemy.</li><li>- His father was killed by Germans.</li><li>- The airmen have just been bombing innocent people in Plymouth.</li><li>- Mr Reynolds and Ann have been kind to him and they would expect him to.</li><li>- They spent a long time with the Home Guard looking for them.</li><li>- One of them is injured, so won't get very far</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- One of them saved David's life by risking his own.</li><li>- They do not look frightening, but hungry and exhausted.</li><li>- They are people, just like David.</li></ul>
Write a paragraph about what you would do if you were David and why. Think about what would happen as a consequence of your actions. <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
