

Our Science Principles

- Children are engaged in hands-on, exciting and stimulating lessons.
- Children's questions form the basis for scientific exploration.
- Resources are readily available, and used to enhance learning opportunities.
- Visits, trips and other curriculum enhancement opportunities are planned for each unit of study.
- Equal consideration is given to all curriculum areas.
- Children have time for reflection - they know that it is OK to make mistakes.

Generated by the staff and pupils of Wallsend Jubilee Primary School