

Using different types of words to start a sentence makes our writing more interesting... Here are some examples we are going to use..

Quickly (adverbs)

Early in the morning (connective openers)

On the other side of the bridge
(preposition)

As quick as a flash (simile)

Sad, the troll (one word)

Trotting across the bridge (-ing word)

Think about the Three billy goats gruff story and use the sentence starts to write amazing sentences....

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---