

Instructions

1. Think of an animal that is very good at defending itself and/or is amazing at doing something. This is your title creature.
2. For each of the three main verses, think of two human tools, weapons or skills that the animal does not have or need. Put these on the first line of each verse.
3. Think of what amazing thing the animal can nevertheless do despite not having these tools or objects. Use this to write the second line of your poem.
4. Think of the repeated word you will use for the last line of your poem. This might be a noise your animal makes or something it does. You may need to replace can or have with something different for the line to make sense.
5. For the last verse of the poem, think of three actions or movements that your creature is very good at. Write these on the second line and then use your refrain from the earlier verses for the final line.

Writing Frame

Use the writing frame below to build your poem. Or, if you want a real challenge, try writing the poem without the writing frame!

The _____ Song

Neither _____ nor _____ have I
But I _____
And I can/have _____, _____, _____ !

Neither _____ nor _____ have I
But I _____
And I can/have _____, _____, _____ !

Neither _____ nor _____ have I
But I _____
And I can/have _____, _____, _____ !

I master every movement
For I _____, _____ and _____
And I can/have
_____, _____, _____ !
