

Tuesday 5th May

I can plan a journey and quest myth

Your task : fill in the missing parts in the planning structure below to plan your own journey and myth quest. I've included the structure of the Medusa story to give you ideas.

Story structure	The Quest for Medusa's head.	The Quest for _____
1.A character travels in search of something or someone – or to deliver or escape from something. Who is the monster	An evil king sends Perseus to get the head of the Gorgan Medusa because Danae wont marry him.	An evil king sends Perseus to get _____ because Danae wont marry him.
2.They prepare for the journey and set out Magic item	He meets the gods Athema and Hermes who tell him where to go and give him magic winged sandals which will make him fly.	He meets the gods Athema and Hermes who tell him where to go and give him _____ _____
3.They meet various dangers, challenges, obstacles on the way, each of which has to be overcome or avoided. Obstacles may be linked e.g. one provides the key to overcoming the next etc. 4 more objects to help Perseus.	Perseus tricks the Grey sisters to find out where the Western maidens are. The Western maidens give Perseus a sword, shield, cap of invisibility and magic pouch.	Perseus tricks the Grey sisters to find out where the Western maidens are. The Western maidens give Perseus _____, _____, _____ and _____.
4.Finally they arrive, accomplish the task and all is well	Perseus finds Medusa and uses his magic items to defeat her. He cuts off her head .	Perseus finds _____ and defeats them.
5.They may stay and the story ends, or make the return journey in relative safety	Perseus flies home with Medusa's head.	Perseus flies home with _____.