

Lesson 3: Activity 3: Stereotyping Statements

Match the statements. Do you think they are all true?

I'm a rapper, I can break dance and I wear lots of gold jewellery.		I am a boy
I go out to work every day, I don't come home until late, I am strict.		I am black
I don't live in a proper home, I steal things and I leave lots of rubbish when I move on.		I am a mother
My favourite colour is pink, I giggle a lot and I like clothes and shopping.		I am a father
I stay at home all day, I do all the cooking and cleaning and look after everyone.		I am a gypsy
I am a drama queen, I have piercings, I've got a girly voice and I hang around with girls.		I am a girl
I'm into sports, I never show my feelings and I get into fights.		I am elderly
I shout a lot, I'm always telling someone off and I make people work hard.		I am American
I love cheeseburgers and fries, I'm very overweight and I'm dumb.		I am gay
I am frail, I don't have much money.		I am a teacher
