

Thursday 4th February 2021

I can use imperative verbs.

Look over these features of instructions

INSTRUCTIONS

Instructions are used to describe, explain or instruct how to do something. They are usually presented in a step by step sequence.

© 2019 Pearson Education Ltd. All rights reserved.

Headings: Tell you what the text is all about Subheading: Tell you what each paragraph is about

Imperative Verbs

Adverbs

An adverb describes a verb, an adjective or another adverb. It tells when, where, how, and how often.

When?

after
before
early
now
since
soon
today
tomorrow
yesterday

Where?

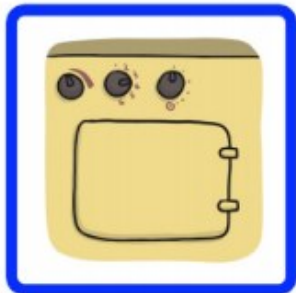

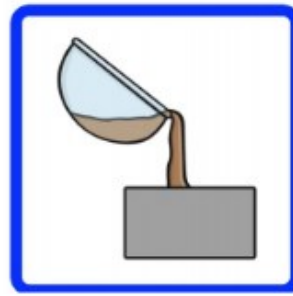

above
below
everywhere
far
here
inside near outside
there

How?

calmly
beautifully
excitedly
happily
joyfully
knowingly
sadly sloppily
stiffly

How often?

always
daily
frequently
never once
rarely seldom sometimes usually

Task 1:
Order the picture
instructions

Imperative verbs are bossy and tell you what to do.

Eat your dinner up.

Get your shoes on.

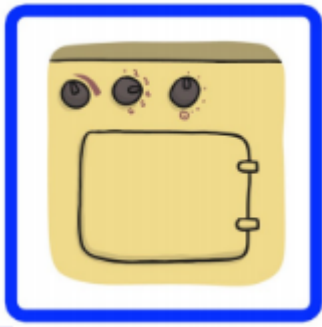

Put your books away.

Tidy up your bedroom.

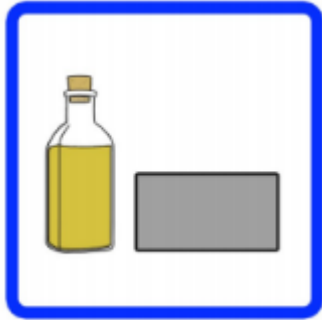

Write a sentence for each picture, explaining what it is asking you to do. You must start your sentence with a imperative (bossy) verb.

I have done the first two for you.

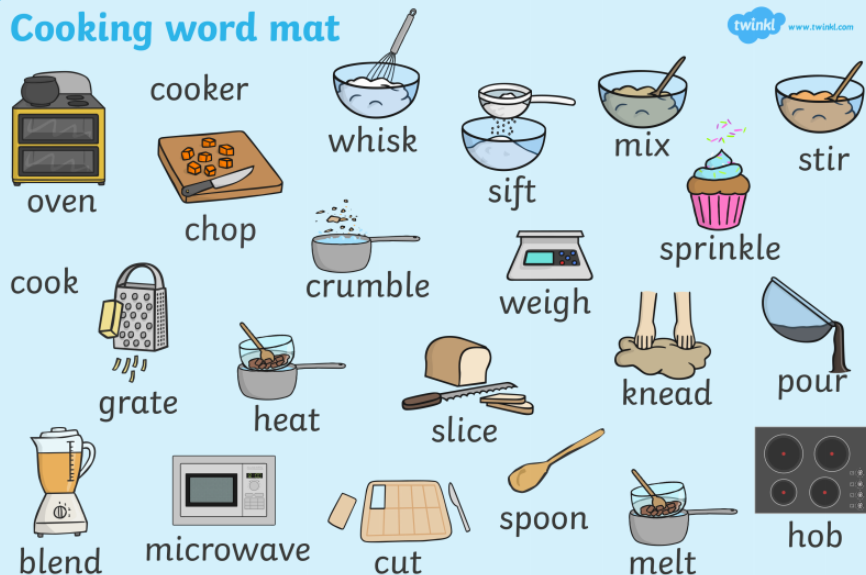

Heat the oven up.

Get your ingredients ready

Cooking word mat

You might need these to help you.

Imperative Verbs

