

Tuesday 5th May-

Yesterday you thought about wishes, today we are going to predict and question the story before we read it.

We have used talk aloud, think aloud a lot this year so this should be easy - Using the picture and the title can you think of as many questions based on what they make you think about? Use the 5 W questions- where, when, why, who, what.

I have added one question already to get you started

