

Wednesday— What can you see?

Look at the pictures below. Can you describe what you can see? You can either print the sheets off and write on them or write in your green books. Remember how we can use lots of exciting adjectives when we are writing a description. You could also colour the picture in or copy it into your books adding more details if you want.