

Thursday 11th June, year 3, Grammar Game

Words in sentences do different jobs.

Your task: Read the paragraph below again. Some words have been underlined. They all do the same job except for one word that is the 'odd one out'.

One stormy night, two mischievous trolls called Skess and Landra perched together on the craggy cliff, watching. Below, the sea bubbled and foamed. Above, the full moon glared down, casting a long shadow across the ebony beach.

- Which one word do you think is the odd one out? Why?
